

As some members of the university have tight schedules, waiting in queues wastes their valuable time.

Our application FastWay helps by providing a delivery service within the KSU female campus to deliver the members of the university what ever they need whenever they need it.

FastWay also provides a part-time job for anyone who has some free time to put into use and deliver some orders.

